DAVID GRUNER, MSW

FOUNDER

David Gruner, MSW, Principal, has continually been at the cutting edge of career management since founding Career Directions in 1979. He has consulted to over 200 organizations in business, health care, education, and government.

His primary interests are leadership coaching, emotional intelligence assessment, competency profiling and assessment, and career development.

David has been certified as a Personal and Professional Coach by the Coaches Training Institute of San Rafael, CA. This institute is recognized as one of the most comprehensive and rigorous training programs for coaches. David has also completed all of the Institute's advanced level coaching courses.

He is the first Career Management Practitioner in Michigan certified by the Institute of Career Certification International (ICC International).

David is the Michigan partner of Career Partners International, an international affiliation of over 30 partner career management firms in North America, Latin America, Europe, Australia, and Asia. This is one of the world's largest, independently owned, innovative career management firms providing career management services to over 150 cities worldwide.

David earned his MSW at the University of Michigan and his BA in Economics at Brandeis University. He is a member of The Association of Career Management Consulting Firms International (AOCFI), Association of Career Professionals International (ACP), and International Coach Federation (ICF).
